WORK EXPERIENCE

Illini Blockchain

Blockchain Developer

August 2022-Present

Champaign, IL

- Worked with Solana utilizing Solidity and Rust to develop a decentralized marketplace version of eBay that would enable sellers to get a greater sale price as profit and allow users to sell items without a bureaucratic centralized platform or middlemen.
- Worked on a web3 security team: Studied Ethereum, practiced smart contract audits, and optimized Solidity smart contracts for enhanced security.
- My role requires a deep understanding of the Solana network, alongside concepts like distributed ledgers, and consensus algorithms.

Juniper Networks

Software Engineering Intern

June 2023-August 2023

Sunnyvale, CA

- Developed feature dimensionality reduction techniques, including PCA, t-SNE, and a Multivariate Autoencoder, for integration into the company's AI/ML toolbox.
- Gained hands-on experience with diverse ML libraries and deepened understanding of Juniper's Cloud-Native Contrail Networking platform (CN2).
- Achieved our overall goal to simplify high-dimensional data models for improved AI/ML model development.

IBM

Online Applied Data Science Project

June 2020-August 2020

Online Course

- Helped IBM coordinate and develop a model that used statistics to predict future crime rates and current crime hotspots in New York City
- Utilized Python to analyze large datasets and generate insights and trends to non-technical stakeholders that were used to improve decision-making processes through visualizations.

Students Tutor Students (501(c)(3) non-profit)

Co-Founder + Outreach Director

February 2020-June 2021

Portland, OR

- Managed 150 tutors providing one-on-one tutoring resulting in improved academic performance for hundreds.
- Directed outreach effort and web development, and hosted a free online summer camp for 350+ low-income kids.
- Received recognition from local NBC affiliate KGW-TV for impact on community, highlighting success of summer camps and one-on-one tutoring programs.
